

TALKING ABOUT LEARNING NEW THINGS

B1 | Adults | Conversation Prompts | 45-60 minutes
Topic: Everyday English | Skills: Speaking | Grammar: General

Talk with a partner. Give reasons and examples. Ask follow-up questions when you can.

1. What is something you would like to learn?	2. Do you prefer learning alone or with other people?
3. When is the best time of day for you to study?	4. What was the last useful thing you learned?
5. Do you learn better by watching, reading or doing?	6. What subject did you enjoy at school?
7. Who has taught you something useful outside school?	8. What makes a lesson interesting?
9. Do you prefer short practice sessions or longer ones?	10. How do you remember new English words?
11. What do you do when something is difficult to understand?	12. Have you ever learned something from a mistake?
13. Do you enjoy asking questions in a class?	14. What helps you feel comfortable trying something new?
15. Can an online video teach you as well as a person?	16. Is it useful to practise with someone at a different level?
17. How can you tell that you are making progress?	18. What could schools teach that would be useful in daily life?
19. What skill could you teach your partner?	20. If you had a month to learn one new skill, what would it be?
