

FUTURE PERFECT

B1-B2 | Grammar reference guide

1 Look at the diagrams below.

I will have finished the report by Friday.

By June, I will have visited five countries.

2 Read the key idea.

We use the future perfect for an action completed before a future time or event.

It is formed with will have + past participle and often uses by or by the time.

3 Notice the useful time words.

USEFUL TIME WORDS

by | by then | by Friday | by the time | before | in two years

4 Read the example sentences.

Deadline:

I will have finished the report by Friday.

Negative:

She will not have arrived by noon.

Accumulated:

By June, I will have visited five countries.

Question:

Will you have finished by tomorrow?