

FUTURE SIMPLE

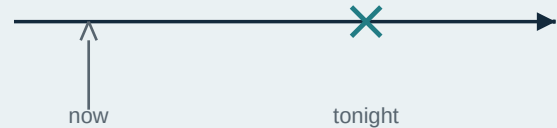

A1-A2 | Grammar reference guide

1 Look at the diagrams below.

It will rain tomorrow.

I will call you tonight.

2 Read the key idea.

We use the future simple for predictions, decisions, promises, and offers.

It is formed with will + base verb, and describes an action or situation after now.

3 Notice the useful time words.

USEFUL TIME WORDS

tomorrow | next week | soon | later | tonight | in the future

4 Read the example sentences.

Prediction:

It will rain tomorrow.

Negative:

We will not be late.

Decision:

I will call you tonight.

Question:

Will you help me?