

SECOND CONDITIONAL

B1 | Grammar explanation

1 Look at the example.

win the lottery

travel the world

If I won the lottery, I would travel the world.

2 Read the key idea.

We use the second conditional for imagined or unlikely situations now or in the future.

The situation is not real now, or we do not think it is likely to happen.

3 Notice the form.

IF + PAST SIMPLE , WOULD + BASE VERB

*If I had more free time, I would learn Spanish.
If I did not live so far away, I would visit more often.*
