

GIVING ADVICE SPEAKING PROMPTS

B2-C1 | Take turns: explain a problem, give advice and ask a follow-up question.

1. I am considering changing careers, but I do not know where to begin.	11. My manager gives me unclear instructions, and I often have to redo my work.
2. My flatmate makes a lot of noise late at night.	12. I have agreed to organise an event, but fewer people are helping than I expected.
3. I have too much work and an important deadline is approaching.	13. I am thinking of renting a flat with a friend, but we have different spending habits.
4. A colleague often misses deadlines and it affects my work.	14. I made a mistake at work and I am not sure how to explain it.
5. I am moving to a new city where I do not know anyone.	15. I want to return to study, but I have a full-time job.
6. I want to save money, but I keep spending too much online.	16. A neighbour keeps parking in front of my driveway.
7. I am planning a long trip and I am worried about unexpected problems.	17. I have received an online review that I think is unfair.
8. I disagree with a friend, and the situation is becoming uncomfortable.	18. I need to reduce stress, but I find it difficult to switch off after work.
9. I have been offered two jobs and I cannot decide which one to accept.	19. I want to improve a presentation, but I do not know what my audience needs.
10. I want to ask for a pay rise, but I am worried about the conversation.	20. I have been invited to a wedding abroad, but the trip is very expensive.
