

GIVING OPINIONS SPEAKING PROMPTS

B2-C1 | Numbered pair and group prompts

1. Should employers offer flexible working whenever possible?	11. Should schools teach practical financial skills as a required subject?
2. Should social-media platforms take more responsibility for harmful content?	12. Is it reasonable to expect people to be available outside working hours?
3. Does international tourism benefit local communities overall?	13. Should voting be compulsory in national elections?
4. Should artificial intelligence be used more widely in education?	14. Do streaming services offer too much choice to consumers?
5. Should cities prioritise public transport over new roads?	15. Should museums and galleries be free to enter?
6. Is restricting private cars in city centres a fair policy?	16. Is it better to repair old products or replace them with newer ones?
7. Should university education be free for all students?	17. Should public money be spent on space exploration?
8. Can individual lifestyle choices make a meaningful difference to climate change?	18. Do online reviews help consumers make better decisions?
9. Should governments regulate short-term holiday rentals more strictly?	19. Should companies be expected to publish their environmental impact?
10. Does remote work improve productivity or weaken teamwork?	20. Is privacy more important than convenience in digital services?