

AGREEING AND DISAGREEING

B2-C1 | Numbered pair and group prompts

1. Employers should offer flexible working whenever possible.	11. Schools should teach practical financial skills.
2. Governments should regulate social-media platforms more strictly.	12. People should not be expected to answer work messages outside office hours.
3. International tourism benefits local communities overall.	13. Museums and galleries should be free to enter.
4. Artificial intelligence should be used widely in education.	14. Online reviews help consumers make better decisions.
5. Cities should spend more on public transport than new roads.	15. Companies should publish their environmental impact.
6. Private cars should be restricted in city centres.	16. Privacy is more important than convenience in digital services.
7. University education should be free for all students.	17. Public money should be spent on space exploration.
8. Individual choices can make a major difference to climate change.	18. Streaming services offer too much choice to consumers.
9. Voting should be compulsory in national elections.	19. Four-day working weeks should become normal.
10. Short-term holiday rentals should be regulated more strictly.	20. Governments should invest more in mental-health services.