

GIVING EXAMPLES

A2-B1 | Functional language for making ideas clear with examples

1 Useful phrase patterns

Use these phrases to give an example and make your meaning clearer.

For example, ...

For example, you could read a short story.

For instance, ...

For instance, try a new recipe.

Such as ...

You can visit places such as museums.

Like ...

I enjoy sports like tennis.

One example is ...

One example is using a calendar.

You could ...

You could listen to a podcast.

This includes ...

This includes food and transport.

especially ...

Fruit is a healthy snack, especially apples.

2 Respond to the situations

Write one sentence with an example for each situation. Try to use a range of phrases.

1. Give an example of a way to practise English.

2. Give an example of a healthy snack.

3. Give an example of a place to visit in a city.

4. Give an example of something people can recycle.

5. Give an example of a useful phone app.

6. Give an example of a sport you can play indoors.

7. Give an example of a job that helps people.

8. Give an example of something to do on a rainy day.

GIVING EXAMPLES

A2-B1 | Suggested answers

3

Possible answers

These are examples only. Other accurate and suitable responses are also correct.

Encourage students to use a range of phrase patterns from page 1.

1. For example, you could watch a short English video.

2. A healthy snack is fruit, such as an apple or a banana.

3. A city offers many places to visit; this includes museums and parks.

4. People can recycle things like paper and plastic bottles.

5. A useful phone app is a map app, especially when you travel.

6. For instance, you can play table tennis indoors.

7. One example is a nurse, who helps sick people.

8. You could read a book on a rainy day.
