Conversation: Finding ways to practise English

Mia	I want to practise English at home, but I don't know what to do apart from homework.
Leo	You could use things you enjoy. For example , watch a short cooking video and try to follow it.
Mia	I like cooking, but people in videos speak so quickly.
Leo	Choose something with pictures. You could pause after each step and describe what you're doing.
Mia	That sounds more useful than just watching. What else could I try?
Leo	Think about everyday things, such as writing a shopping list or leaving yourself a voice message.
Mia	I could describe what I need to buy before I go to the supermarket.
Leo	Exactly. It doesn't have to be a long activity, especially when you're busy.

Conversation: Choosing a useful volunteer role

Nora	I'd like to volunteer, but I'm not sure what I could do. I'm not good at building or repairing things.
Finn	There are lots of other jobs. For instance , the community centre needs people to welcome visitors.
Nora	Would I need to know everything about the centre?
Finn	No. One example is showing a new visitor where their class meets. You'd have a timetable to help you.
Nora	That sounds manageable. Do they need help outside the building too?
Finn	Yes, with events like the summer fair. People help set up tables and run activities.
Nora	I'd enjoy that. Is there any training before you start?
Finn	There is. This includes a tour, safety information and a chance to ask questions.
