1. GET STARTED

Take turns asking and answering. Add a detail, then ask a follow-up question.

A: Do you usually walk to work?

B: Yes, but I'm taking the bus this week. My ankle hurts.

A: Oh, no. Are you feeling better today?

2. USUALLY AND TODAY

2. What do you usually wear to work or school?
3. What are you wearing now?
4. Where do you usually study English?
5. What are you studying in English this week?
6. What do you usually do at this time on Sundays?

Keep talking: Is that usual for you? / Why this week?

3. CHANGES AROUND NOW

Compare normal routines with temporary situations. You can imagine a different week.

7. Are you reading anything interesting at the moment?
8. What kinds of books do you usually read?
9. Is someone you know working different hours this week?
10. What does that person usually do after work?

4. A DIFFERENT WEEK

Imagine you're staying with a friend for a week. Your routine is different.

Ask each other about meals, travel and free time. Compare this week with normal life.

Answer help: I usually ... / Today I'm ... / She normally ... / This week she's ...

Remember: habits = present simple; now / temporary = present continuous.
