

BE GOING TO

A2 | Teens / Adults | Grammar Question Practice | 20-30 minutes

Talk about plans and predictions based on what you can see.

1. GET STARTED

Take turns asking and answering. Add a detail, then ask a follow-up question.

A: What are you going to do after class?

B: I'm going to walk home. Oh, look at those dark clouds.

A: It's going to rain. Take my umbrella.

2. YOUR PLANS

1. What are you going to do after this lesson?
2. What are you going to eat tonight?
3. Are you going to study English this weekend?
4. Who are you going to see soon?
5. What are you going to buy next time you go shopping?
6. What aren't you going to do this weekend?

Keep talking: How are you going to do that? / Who with?

3. LOOK AT THE SIGNS

Imagine each situation. Say what you think is going to happen, and why.

7. The sky is very dark. What is going to happen?
8. A glass is at the edge of a table. What is going to happen?
9. A runner is near the finish line, far ahead. Who is going to win?
10. Your train leaves in a minute. You're outside. Are you going to catch it?

4. PLAN A FREE AFTERNOON

You both have a free afternoon. Decide where to go and what to do.

Ask about travel, food and the weather. Explain your plan to another pair.

Example: We're going to visit the market. We're going to take the bus.

Answer help: I'm going to ... / We're going to ... / It looks like it's going to ...

Remember: am / is / are + going to + verb: She's going to cook.
