

WILL: PREDICTIONS & DECISIONS

A2 | Teens / Adults | Grammar Question Practice | 20-30 minutes

Make predictions and decide what to do as you speak.

1. GET STARTED

Take turns asking and answering. Add a detail, then ask a follow-up question.

A: Oh, the phone's ringing. My hands are wet.

B: I'll answer it. I think it'll be Mum.

A: Thanks. Tell her I'll call her back after lunch.

2. WHAT DO YOU THINK?

1. Do you think it will rain tomorrow?
2. What do you think you will eat for lunch tomorrow?
3. Will your town change much in the next ten years?
4. What things will people do more online in the future?
5. Do you think English will be easier for you next year?
6. What do you think will happen in your favourite TV series?

Keep talking: Why do you think so? / Are you sure?

3. DECIDE NOW

Respond to each situation with an offer or a decision using will.

7. Your partner can't carry all their bags. What will you say?
8. There's no bread for lunch. What will you do?
9. Your friend feels cold. What will you offer?
10. The doorbell rings while your friend cooks. What will you do?

4. HELP WITH A BUSY MORNING

One person has a busy morning: shopping, cooking and meeting a visitor.

Explain the jobs. Your partner makes three offers to help. Then swap roles.

Example: I need some milk. / I'll get it. / Thanks. I'll give you some money.

Answer help: I think ... will ... / It won't ... / I'll help. / I'll do that.

Remember: will + verb: She will come (not comes). I'll = I will.
