

TOO / ENOUGH

A2 | Teens / Adults | Grammar Question Practice | 20-30 minutes

Say when something is too much or not enough.

1. GET STARTED

Take turns asking and answering. Add a detail, then ask a follow-up question.

A: Shall we get this table for the kitchen?

B: It's too big. Our kitchen isn't large enough.

A: You're right. This smaller one looks better.

2. EVERYDAY PROBLEMS

1. Is your bag sometimes too heavy? What's in it?
2. Is your room quiet enough for studying?
3. Do you have enough time for breakfast on weekdays?
4. Is your phone screen big enough for reading?
5. Is any food too spicy for you?
6. Do you get enough sleep on weekdays?

Keep talking: What can you change? / Enough for what?

3. IS IT SUITABLE?

Explain whether each thing works for the situation. Imagine the details.

7. A tiny car for six people: is it big enough?
8. A heavy suitcase for a walking trip: is it too heavy?
9. Ten minutes for a full lunch: is that enough time?
10. A noisy cafe for studying: is it quiet enough?

4. CHOOSE A PLACE TO STUDY

Compare a cafe, a library and your home as places to study together.

Discuss noise, space, time and cost. Choose the most suitable place.

Example: The cafe is too noisy. The library has enough space for us.

Answer help: It's too ... / It isn't ... enough. / We haven't got enough ...

Remember: too + adjective; adjective + enough; enough + noun.
