

INDEFINITE PRONOUNS

A2 | Teens / Adults | Grammar Question Practice | 20-30 minutes

Talk about people, things and places without naming them exactly.

1. GET STARTED

Take turns asking and answering. Add a detail, then ask a follow-up question.

A: Have you seen my keys? They're somewhere in this room.

B: Is there anything under that newspaper?

A: Yes! Here they are. Thanks.

2. PEOPLE, THINGS AND PLACES

1. Is there anything interesting in your bag?
2. Do you know anyone who speaks three languages?
3. Is there somewhere quiet near your home?
4. What's something you use every day?
5. Is everyone in your family interested in the same food?
6. Is there anything you never take on holiday?

Keep talking: Who is it? / Where exactly? / What kind of thing?

3. EVERYDAY SITUATIONS

Use someone, something, somewhere, anyone, anything, anywhere or nothing in your answers.

7. You need help with a heavy bag. What can you ask?
8. You're hungry. What can you say you need?
9. You want a quiet place to study. What can you ask?
10. There's no food in the fridge. What can you say? Use nothing.

4. A SURPRISE OUTING

Plan a surprise outing without naming the exact person, place or gift at first.

Your partner asks questions and guesses the details. Then swap roles.

Example: We're going somewhere near the river. / Is there anything to eat there?

Answer help: Someone I know ... / There's something ... / I don't know anyone ...

Remember: someone is, not someone are; nothing = not anything.
