

PREPOSITIONS OF TIME

A2 | Teens / Adults | Grammar Question Practice | 20-30 minutes

Talk about times, days, months and longer periods.

1. GET STARTED

Take turns asking and answering. Add a detail, then ask a follow-up question.

A: When's your next English class?

B: On Tuesday, at six. Our new course starts in November.

A: Good. I can come on Tuesdays too.

2. YOUR WEEK

1. What time do you get up on weekdays?
2. What do you usually do in the morning?
3. When do you normally study English?
4. What do you do on Friday evenings?
5. Do you work or study at weekends?
6. What time do you usually go to bed at night?

Keep talking: At what time? / On which day?

3. SPECIAL DATES

Answer with at, on or in where needed. Give an extra detail.

7. When's your birthday?
8. What do you like doing in summer?
9. What do you normally do on your birthday?
10. What year did you start learning English?

4. FIND A TIME TO MEET

Arrange a meeting next week. Offer two days and times and agree on one.

Ask what your partner is doing at the other time.

Example: Can we meet on Wednesday at five? / I have a class at five.

Answer help: at seven / on Monday / in July / in 2024 / in the evening

Remember: no at / on / in before next, last, this or every: next Monday.
