

FUTURE FORMS

Discuss intentions, arrangements, predictions and decisions.

1. GET STARTED

Take turns asking and answering. Give details and ask a follow-up. You can invent personal details.

A: Are you doing anything on Saturday?

B: I'm meeting Jo at the pool. We're going to try the new exercise class.

A: That sounds good. I'll check the timetable and see if I can join you.

2. PLANS AND EXPECTATIONS

1. What are you going to do after this lesson? Have you decided?
2. Are you meeting anyone this week? What have you arranged?
3. What skill are you going to learn or improve next?
4. What do you think your life will be like in five years? Explain your prediction.
5. Is anything going to change at home, work or school soon?
6. What will your town be like in ten years, do you think?

Keep talking: Have you arranged it? / Why have you decided that? / Do you think it'll happen?

3. DECIDE AND OFFER

Respond to the situations. Use will for a decision or offer made as you speak.

7. Your partner has too many bags. How will you help?
8. Your usual cafe is closed. Where will you go instead?
9. You forgot a friend's birthday. What will you do now?
10. Your partner needs help practising English. What will you offer to do?

4. ORGANISE A FREE AFTERNOON

Plan an afternoon together. Discuss intentions, then agree on a time and place to meet.

Predict one possible problem and offer a solution. Explain which plans are now arranged.

Example: We're meeting at two. It might rain, so I'll bring an umbrella.

Tell another pair what you're going to do.

Answer help: I'm going to ... / We're meeting at ... / I think it'll ... / I'll help.

Remember: Intention: going to; arrangement: present continuous; quick decision/offer: will.
