

QUESTION TAGS

B1 | Teens / Adults | Grammar Question Practice | 20-30 minutes

Check information and invite agreement with natural question tags.

1. GET STARTED

Read the tag statements to your partner. Confirm or correct the information, then keep talking.

A: The doors open at six, don't they?

B: Yes. You've got the tickets, haven't you? I can't find them in my bag.

A: They're on my phone. We don't need printed copies, do we?

2. CHECK WITH YOUR PARTNER

1. You enjoy learning English, don't you? What do you enjoy most?
2. You aren't usually busy on Sundays, are you? Tell me about your routine.
3. You did something interesting last weekend, didn't you? What was it?
4. You haven't finished all your work today, have you? What is left?
5. You can cook at least one dish, can't you? What is it?
6. You're going to practise English this week, aren't you? How?

Keep talking: Actually, ... / That's right. / No, I don't. / What made you think that?

3. CHECK THE SITUATION

Answer honestly; the speaker may be wrong. Then make your own tag statement about the situation.

7. This room isn't too cold, is it? Would you change anything?
8. We have enough time for a short break, don't we? How much time is left?
9. Learning a language takes practice, doesn't it? What kind helps you?
10. You didn't walk all the way here, did you? How did you travel?

4. CHECK THREE THINGS

Make three guesses about your partner's habits, experiences or plans. Add suitable tags.

Your partner confirms or corrects each guess and gives a detail. Swap roles.

Example: You live nearby, don't you? / Actually, I live about an hour away.

Use a rising voice when checking; a falling voice can invite agreement.

Answer help: Yes, I do. / No, I haven't. / Actually, ... / That's right, and ...

Remember: Match the auxiliary and pronoun; positive statement usually takes a negative tag.
